WELCOME TO Yale West Campus

From molecules to midwives, to the future of our shared cultural heritage, to the discovery of new energy sources to run our planet, Yale West Campus is a place where the arts, humanities, and sciences converge.

West Campus is home to Yale School of Nursing and seven research institutes that extend the boundaries of health, culture, energy, and the environment; the university's most advanced research technology; a landscape full of inspired, student-driven projects; and a conference center and café for talking it all over.

We look forward to welcoming you to Yale West Campus, October 26–28, 2018.

Welcome!

Helen Kauder
Executive Director
Artspace

City-Wide Open Studios turns 21 this year, and feels more mature, yet more necessary than ever. In these anxious times, against a backdrop where civil and personal rights are threatened and democracy's most fundamental institutions are imperiled, it is more important to ensure that artists have forums and platforms to develop their honest appraisals of our culture, to be our lens to see our world more clearly and to point to truths that may elude the rest of us.

Thank you for being part of this annual effort to amplify the voices of local artists.

While we've traded the funky and gritty Armory Alternative Space for the serenity of a corporate park, our new setting allows the empathy of artists who are addressing issues of wellbeing to be felt more profoundly, and with luminous clarity. They are helping us understand the pursuit of health and care in a new light.

With your involvement, Artspace continues its role as a catalyst for Connecticut artists and for our whole community. With your help, we ignite artistic visions, support the creation of significant new works and host an unforgettable gathering on a scale that would be impossible to realize anywhere else.

Thank you to the hundreds of artists who have joined us, to our many partners and to my colleagues at Artspace who devote themselves daily to helping artists build a stronger community. A warm and appreciative thank you to the Yale West Campus for opening their arms to artists and to letting the possibilities of cross-pollination unfurl.

Dannel P. Malloy
Governor
State of Connecticut

On behalf of the State of Connecticut, it is my great pleasure to extend greetings and congratulations to all who have gathered for the 21st Annual City-Wide Open Studios festival.

This home-grown celebration brings together artists and citizens from across the State of Connecticut to showcase their creative strengths. Connecticut communities are an inspirational and inviting setting for artists to live and work. This state has a rich tradition in the arts, and recognizes the important contributions that artists make in our cities and towns. Artspace has furthered this cause through its three decades of service to the New Haven area. This year, Artspace can take pride in the City of West Haven and the Town of Orange joining this festival weekend.

I commend the organizers, participants, and supporters of City-Wide Open Studios for your commitment to celebrating the arts in Connecticut. You have my best wishes for continued success in the years to come.

Catherine Smith
DECD Commissioner
State of Connecticut

The arts play an essential role in bringing communities together and are fundamental to our state's economic health. City-Wide Open studios is a great example of how arts can be used as a force for change and inspiration in our communities. The arts serve as a platform for dialogue on issues such as social equity, workforce innovation, and community wellbeing.

For 21 years, artists, curators, and arts enthusiasts have come together in New Haven for City-Wide Open Studios. This month-long celebration attracts thousands of visitors to the region to experience the vibrancy of the arts in Connecticut and provides opportunities for artists from across the state to exhibit their work in open studio venues throughout the city.

We at the Department of Economic and Community Development would like to thank the artists, the staff at Artspace, and the countless volunteers for their contributions that together make it possible for this event to be a success year after year. The collaborative energy of City-Wide Open Studios invigorates the community and once again proves that the arts are not just nice, they are necessary.

Toni Harp
Mayor
City of New Haven

I take great pleasure in welcoming you to the 21st annual City-Wide Open Studios! Thank you all for your ongoing commitment to celebrating the talented artists who live, work, learn (and yes...play) in the Greater New Haven Region. There is no better time to embrace the breadth of a truly uplifting and dynamic creative spirit that is promoted in our historic Elm City.

How perfect that this year's CWOS transports this art experience to the Yale West Campus for a weekend of exciting ARTS programming and visual wonderment. I extend a warm welcome to Mayor Nancy Rossi, First Selectman Jim Zeoli and the leadership of Yale West Campus for hosting this imaginative destination in artistic expression.

At a critical moment in the ongoing debate regarding access to quality wellness I applaud Artspace's appreciation of the "centrality" of integrating all forms of artistic expression into the dynamics of holistic healthcare, and emphasize the pivotal role the arts have historically played as a source of healing in our society. This unique cross-sector collaboration is a testament to the inherent strengths of our Greater New Haven Region: as both a diverse cultural "hub" and an innovator fostering wellness thru a network of educational and medical institutions and burgeoning life sciences startups as well as countless wellness warriors—from yoga studios to city vegetable gardeners and advocacy groups, who together are promoting the proactive embrace of healthful lifestyles.

Like all of you, I look forward to this yearly display of originality, art and creative passion on full display at CWOS and plan my October weekends to participate in studio visits and (to be sure) purchases. Whether it's sculpture, painting, prints, collage, fiber art, drawings, installations, or performance: each activity promotes new ideas and creative energy.

I invite all City-Wide Open Studios guests and participants to enjoy the vibrant cultural landscape our City has to offer—from retail shops and restaurants to unparalleled global entertainment—during your CWOS visit.

Thank you Artspace and your amazing, creative TEAM for organizing another year of compelling art and programming. Best Wishes for an enjoyable and enriching CWOS 2018!

Nancy R. Rossi
Mayor
City of West Haven

It is with profound pride and pleasure that I welcome you—together with Artspace and their many partners, friends and supporters—to West Haven, Connecticut for the 21st annual City-Wide Open Studios festival. This signature cultural experience inspires the public and art practitioners alike, the young, the old and all who generously share their artistic viewpoints.

Our society benefits from bold and diverse creative voices that ask us to look at things anew and challenge our status quo. And so I add a special welcome to the artists who are participating this year.

West Haven strives to be a nurturing environment for arts and culture. We are home to outstanding creators who are recognized by the Connecticut Office of the Arts, the National Endowment for the Arts, the John Simon Guggenheim Memorial Foundation and the Awesome Foundation. For many years artists at Gilbert Street Studios, the University of New Haven, private citizens and local businesses in West Haven have played a significant part in City-Wide Open Studios. This year West Haven will step into a new role as the Alternative Space host location. This is a moment and a cause for celebration. The Yale West campus in our city will be connecting artists and audiences to practitioners working in the healthcare field.

I wish to acknowledge City-Wide Open Studios' 2018 theme of wellness which aligns with our city's commitment to public health and community wellbeing. With Artspace and their academic, municipal and state partners, West Haven opens our doors to this year's artists, volunteers and attendees.

City-Wide Open Studios is a cultural event with the capacity to enlarge a sense of place, perspective and connection. The month-long festival will stimulate and deepen public engagement in the arts. It will raise the visibility of our local talent on a regional basis.

Congratulations on the 21st annual City-Wide Open Studios. We are so glad you are here.

James M. Zeoli
First Selectman
Town of Orange

On behalf of the town of Orange, I welcome City-Wide Open Studios in its 21st year!

Such a multi-layered gathering of so many artists and organizational partners only happens with a great deal of forethought and imagination. This year's theme of Wellbeing reflects so much of what we see across our community and region—creative, caring people coming together to contribute to the quality of life we aspire to enjoy in Connecticut.

I am very glad to see the activation at Yale's West Campus. Like many of my fellow citizens, I heartily look forward to the cultural experience.

Kimbirly A. Moriarty
Board Chair
Artspace

As we transition to shorter days, cooler temperatures, and changing leaves the opportunity to take advantage of all that our community has to offer is broader than ever. October brings so many cultural and artistic delights, including the widely popular City-Wide Open Studios which is celebrating its 21st year.

This year's festival includes a month of exhibits and exciting events centered around the theme of wellbeing. Good health and wellness are vital to the sustainability of our community and this year we will be showcasing the incredible work of local artists who are also healers, providers, and scientists.

I would like to thank the artists for their participation, the Artspace staff and volunteers who make it all possible, and to our corporate partners and supporters. I hope you enjoy the art and activities planned in both New Haven and West Haven and will take advantage of our many other exhibits throughout the year ahead.

Wellbeing

Welcome! Your journey through City-Wide Open Studios starts with this indispensable Guide which will lead you to a dazzling breadth of artists and diversity of artwork.

This year's theme of Wellbeing has been selected to encourage artists and visitors to explore how we care for each other and for the creative resources in our community, particularly in the face of ongoing struggle, challenges and trauma. Such a brave endeavor requires an army of visionaries. Longstanding funders and loyal institutional partners have been joined by new, innovative organizations and purposeful community leaders. For that we are truly grateful.

Start at the Main Exhibition at Artspace to see one work by each artist. Then circle the artists you wish to meet! The maps and weekend lists will provide orientation about when and where to find them in their studios.

Each weekend is interspersed with other programming and events. So read each page, check our website for updates and plan for an exciting month!

ERECTOR SQUARE :: OCTOBER 6-7 :: P 8-13

Visit a unique creative ecosystem, where some of New Haven's most established artists work alongside an array of wellness practitioners in what was once the Erector Set toy factory.

WESTVILLE IN FOCUS :: OCTOBER 13 :: P 14-18

A place where supporting artists and their creative enterprises has turned into a nourishing set of support structures and village traditions.

PRIVATE STUDIOS :: OCTOBER 14 :: P 20-25

Visit a cluster of studios or trek to some farther-flung points on this day of discovering artists in the intimacy of their own environments. Bike tours (guided and self-guided) are well-suited to the pace of Open Studios.

ALTERNATIVE SPACE :: OCTOBER 26-28 :: P 28-45

A record number of 200+ artists, collectives, art departments and more will show their work alongside 12 major commissions on the theme of Wellbeing, from visual art, to performance-based work and social practice.

ZEPH FARMBY: TRAP(PED)

October 5-28 :: The Project Room, Artspace, 50 Orange Street

trapped (verb): having something held tightly so that it cannot move or be freed

For his solo show, Zeph Farmby, Artspace's 2017-18 Artist-in-Residence, will convert the project room into a floor-to-ceiling mural that will serve as the underpainting for a new body of work. Farmby makes paintings, sculptural installations and clothing that comments on the history and evolution of black identity in the United States.

In his ongoing Brainwash Series, he focuses on the way celebrity culture, social media, news media and entertainment has shaped our collective understanding of race since childhood. His work often includes layers of language that seek to expose and dismantle the systems that promote race-based stereotypes—ranging from explicit and camouflaged texts we seek out and passively encounter on the street, in media messaging, and graphics on clothing. As texts are always around us and acting on us in ways seen and unseen, Farmby challenges viewers to consciously find their own voice. He writes, “a society that operates in the space of creativity will project powerful positive energy and unlock the jail that our perspectives are currently threatened to be trapped within.”

Zeph Farmby, Population Control

ERIN LEE ANTONAK:

ANA ALOLE (THE HATS)

PRIVATE STUDIOS WEEKEND :: OCTOBER 13 :: WESTVILLE IN FOCUS

Weekend Highlights

ARTIST PODS!

Sat, October 13, 12–6pm :: Central Ave @ Whalley & Fountain

Westville is excited to host six artists in temporary studios housed in PODS storage containers on Central Avenue! Artists Janet Brodie, Colin Burke, Jacquelyn Gleisner + Ryan Paxton, Sarah Schneiderman and Sara Zunda will transform their PODs into small galleries, while filmmaker Travis Carbonella will transform his POD into a miniature theater.

FLAIR FAIR

Sat, October 13, 11am–4pm :: Lyric Hall, 827 Whalley Ave

Focusing on small pieces of wearable and collectible art, Flair Fair celebrates the modern resurgence of pins, patches, buttons and more. Discover independent artists and designers selling affordable, unique items for your wardrobe and home. Pin and patch culture has reached cult-like status, and many visitors use these events as a way to share, collect, trade and connect with their favorite makers and fellow fans. Come see what it's all about!

BLOCK PARTY & BEER GARDEN

Sat, October 13, 6:30–9pm :: Central Ave @ Whalley & Fountain

The beer garden returns, featuring the salsa, merengue and bachata of Carlos Y Su Monemento Musical! Free and open to the public. 21 and over: wristbands for beer are $15 in advance, purchase online at westvillect.org; $20 at the door.

LITERARY HAPPY HOUR

Sat, October 13, 5–7pm
Kehler Liddell Gallery
873 Whalley Ave

A curated reading and performance series by Hanifa Nayo Washington, Literary Happy Hour creates a radically inclusive performance space that gives rise to healing, liberation, a deepening of self and genuine community building. Three featured artists; open mic to follow.

DONATE

Most CWOS events are free, but we need your support! Donate $5 at West River Arts (909 Whalley Avenue) and receive a complimentary map.

BETWEEN THE WEEKENDS

Downtime

No studios to visit on October 20–21, but there are still plenty of options around town to explore creativity and wellbeing

OCTOBER 20: SPECIAL PROGRAMS

RIDESHARE: ELLEN HOVERKAMP

Saturday, October 20, 2–5pm

Meet at: Savin Rock Conference Center Parking Lot, 6 Rock Street, West Haven

Parking: Place CWOS Guide in windshield

Join Ellen Hoverkamp to make unique “scanner photographs,” inspired by the work of Victorian botanical illustrators, and Dutch and Flemish still-life painters. The day will begin on the West Haven shore, collecting specimens that will become the objects of our still life studies. We will move to a nearby studio space where Hoverkamp will demonstrate how to arrange and scan the objects. The compositions will celebrate the natural bounties of our shared city and nature’s ephemeral beauty. This event is free, but registration is required. Register at artspacenehaven.org/events/rideshare18.

NEW HAVEN CHALK ART FESTIVAL

Saturday, October 20, 12–4pm :: 56 Broadway

ALTERNATIVE SPACE WEEKEND :: OCTOBER 26-28 :: YALE WEST CAMPUS, ORANGE

Artist Commissions

1. THE CENTER FOR ADULT SWADDLING

Adam Berkwitt, Aude Jomini, Chen Reichert, Sam Malissa, David B. Smith, Laura Marsh & Alexandra Jomini

Through the experience of a tight swaddle, this project invites visitors to return to the comfort of dwelling in the womb. Visitors will be invited to enter a multisensory session of support and self-care, set to a sound and textile environment. This participatory work is a collaboration between artists, designers, scholars, and medical practitioners from Yale New Haven Children's Hospital.

2. ALONE NO MORE

Deborah Lehman di Capua

This ongoing collaboration with Yale Internist Dr. Dave Rosenthal and veterans at the West Haven VA explores how the arts might provide a space for gathering, storytelling, community-building, and combating social isolation. Throughout the festival, Lehman di Capua will visit the studios of CWOS artists, leading the veterans in close-looking sessions.

3. BOOBS

Suzanne Kachmar

This traveling group show invites artists to celebrate Breast Cancer Awareness Month by addressing to the notion of "the breast," the promise of a feminist future, and the need to make visible racial and social injustices. Works by Connecticut-based artists will examine "the breast" through the lens of age, gender, body image, race, and healthcare, breaking down appearance-based stereotypes and prejudices that have led to deep rooted social inequities

Artists include Jennifer Brubacher, Eliska Greenspoon, Robin Jopp, Suzanne Kachmar, Karen Kalkstein, kHyal™, Iyaba Ibo Mandingo, Tori Marsh, Dan Makara, Sooo-z Mastropietro, Janette Maxey, Lori Petchers and Faith Baum of the Old Bags project, Marjorie Rosenthal, Amanda Walker, Lee Walther, Jahmane West and ArtBra New Haven, under the direction of Gay Hyre.

4. HERO STORIES: OPEN (MIC) STUDIO

Lilianna Marie Baczeski in collaboration with Adam Christoferson & Douglas Duhaime

Working collaboratively with the New Haven-based social enterprise Musical Intervention, this project seeks to create a safe space for recovering addicts to record music and design album art. Visitors will be able to enjoy live music, purchase the recordings, and share their own stories of addiction and recovery.

5. AN URBAN PERSPECTIVE:

BLACK MINDS REWIRED

Elizabeth Nearing, Dawnise Traore & Collaborators

This collection of thirty short literary pieces, collected from writers and musicians from New Haven and beyond, explores race, mental health and the stigma surrounding mental illness in black communities living at and below the poverty line. This project believes that wellbeing cannot be achieved without well minds, and sharing across communities.

Special thanks to

6. CONVERSION THERAPY

Neil Daigle Orians

Dealing with the violence and mistreatment inflicted on queer youth, this immersive installation seeks to reverse those feelings of rejection and shame and foster individual acceptance and self-celebration. Through group efforts meant to strengthen the LGBTQ community, and queer people living in greater New Haven and Hartford, the project will generate sounds, videos, projections and performances that encourage self-love.

7. THE UNDERNEATH

Martha Lewis & Marion Belanger

This site-specific installation examines ones' place in the greater ecosystem by creating an environment of roots, dirt, insects, and light. Its collaborators seek to show how working with soil and the growth of plants is vital to survival and the cultivation of food, as well as mental healing and mental wellbeing.

8. SCIENCE FOR A BETTER LIFE

Jeff Ostergren

This site-responsive installation features several large painterly assemblages composed of office furniture and memorabilia used by the pharmaceutical staff who once inhabited the building. The installation sheds light on the history of Yale West Campus, calling to mind different states of "wellbeing," and references the Greek verb "pharmakon," which means "to cure" and "to paint."

9. TREE SPA FOR URBAN FOREST HEALING

Colin McMullan

Both a mobile tree syrup processing unit and a tree spa, this relaxing getaway features a steam room of evaporated tree sap, drawing on various traditions of healing from around the world. In honoring these traditions yet moving to a post-modern society, this piece unifies those engaged in a collective healing experience.

10. AN EXPERIMENTAL LABORATORY FOR HEALING

Debbie Hesse, David Hesse & Demetrios Braddock; sound composition by Derek Piotr

Inspired by their daughter's mitochondrial disease, this collaboration presents an interactive, mixed-media video installation that merges art and science to make visible what we cannot comprehend. The installation features found, repurposed, and fabricated materials, including sculpture, medical information, fabric and video projections.

11. THROUGH THE ECHOES

Kellie Ann Lynch & Collaborators

This performance will reflect on the notion of humanity and pay homage to Yale West Campus. Its performers will embody wellbeing through a movement score inspired by contemplative practices and ritualistic ways of being in and being with community. Check cwos.org for performance times.

12. I KNOW YOU SO WELL: A SOUND AND MOVEMENT CHOIR

Rachel Bernsen & Rachel Kauder Nalebuff

This performance brings together twelve healthcare workers who have likely never connected in their professional lives to think holistically about what it means to heal. Participants include a nurse practitioner, a birth doula, a biomedical research scientist, the former director of CT hospice, the director of the therapeutic arts program at the Yale New Haven Children's hospital, an OGBYN, a physical therapist, the director of the Hispanic Clinic at the Yale School of Nursing, a reporter specializing in healthcare, and a home-caregiver for her elderly family.

13. ANA ALOLE (THE HATS)

Erin Lee Antonak

Referencing a mash-up of traditions that intertwine Iroquois ceremonial objects with millinery techniques and drag culture, Antonak will create six hats intended to give restorative strength to their wearers. The hats will debut in an opening night performance that includes members of the artist's family and remain on view in Artspace's Crown Street Window through October.

What is Artspace?

For more than 30 years, Artspace has championed the ideas and artistic concerns of local artists and created space for exhibitions on the most urgent issues of our time. These topics have spanned the AIDS crisis (Interrupted Lives, 1991), Immigration (101 Dresses, 2003), Globalization (Factory Direct, 2005), Climate Change (Marie Celeste, 2011), Political Protest (Vertical Reach, 2015), and racial bias in the criminal justice system (Arresting Patterns, 2015-16).

Over this period, Artspace has been at the forefront of New Haven's arts scene, taking risks on behalf of local artists to advance their careers. Touchstone programs like our annual Summer Apprenticeship Program for New Haven Public School teens, our Artist speed networking which has expanded to foster conversations between artists and civic activists and leaders, this annual City-Wide Open Studios festival, and our Flatfile Collection showcasing exceptional works on paper, create a vital hub so that artists and the community they live in can thrive together.

Our mission is to catalyze artistic activities; connect contemporary artists, audiences, and resources; and to enrich art experiences and activate art spaces. We are dedicated to supporting emerging visual artists because we believe that a community such as ours is enriched immeasurably by actions and activities conceived and created by them.

We need your help to support our activities! Please consider making a contribution to Artspace to help keep our gallery open and our programs running. Your gift is fully tax deductible and can be mailed to Artspace, 50 Orange Street, New Haven, CT 06510. Learn more and make donations online at www.artspacenh.org

Want to get involved in other ways? Know how to hang artwork, paint walls, drive a truck, answer phones, smile, talk enthusiastically, or shake hands? Want to help us persuade local businesses to be more supportive of the arts? Join us and help make exciting things happen.

For more information about our volunteer projects and events, subscribe to our e-news, like us on Facebook, and contact Rachael@artspacenh.org.

IN PLAIN SIGHT/SITE

Curated by Niama Safia Sandy :: November 30, 2018–March 2, 2019

In Plain Sight/Site explores foundational economies and histories of early America in New England and their connections to indigenous, enslaved and indentured populations in both the Old World and the New through the lens of the incessant hunger for land, labor and products. The selected artists’ works seek to excavate the stories of New England’s involvement in the dispossession of Indigenous peoples, the circumnavigation of Trans-Atlantic trade routes and what has happened in its wake—in New Haven, along the Connecticut River from New London to Middletown and across the globe.

The show will feature an ensemble of local and national artists from a range of disciplines, including Kimberly Becoat, Jocelyn Braxton Armstrong, Coleman Alexander Collins, Adama Delphine Fawundu, Nate Lerner, Deborah Jack, Tariku Sherifaw and Maya Vivas.

Work in process by Kimberly M. Becoat, from the High Cotton Series

TOY BOAT

Curated by Sarah Fritchey

November 30, 2018–March 2, 2019

Life on the sea has captivated the collective consciousness of land dwellers—we go there to seek freedom, respite, peace and thrill, to unplug, practice mindfulness and drift into memories of childhood. Yet the water has always been a highly sought after and contested territory, a site of violence, failed experimentation, economic competition, and the unknown. This exhibition pulls from the Artspace Flatfile to explore how artists address these dualities today, constituting a show full of trips, which play out like a deliberately difficult tongue twister.

Artists include Lexi Axon, Cynthia Back, Marc Burns, Jessica Cannon, Claudia Cron, Roxanne Faber Savage, Julian Gilbert-Davis, Nina Jordan, Sun Kwak, Elizabeth Livingston, Shanna Merola, Sam Messer, Jeff Slomba and Catherine Vanaria.

FLATFILE: ANNUAL OPEN CALL

Artspace announces an open call for artists interested in joining our Flatfile Collection. The Collection was started in 2000 and expanded in 2010 with the aid of an Institute of Museum and Library Science Grant, and holds over 1,000 works on paper by 150 artists from across the country.

Apply online: artspacenewhaven.org/opportunities

Deadline: February 1, 2019

Announced: March 30, 2019

ARTIST-IN-RESIDENCE: ANNUAL OPEN CALL

Artspace invites emerging and mid-career artists from all fields to apply for our one year Artist-in-Residence program. During this time, Artists-in-Residence will have round the clock access to one of two spaces: a private 250 sq. ft. first floor studio located in the back of Artspace, or a shared 2,000 sq ft. studio space in a converted former factory building two miles from Artspace.

Apply online: artspacenewhaven.org/opportunities

Deadline: February 1, 2019

FEAST UR MIND

CREATE THE VOTE

The upcoming gubernatorial election is a great time to talk about the challenges our state faces and the vision for our community. While candidates spend lots of time talking about jobs, the economy, and education, they rarely talk about arts and culture as part of their vision. The CT Arts Alliance and Connecticut Alliance for Arts Education have launched Create the Vote CT to ensure that arts and culture matters for voters and candidates this year. Artspace is a proud co-sponsor for Create the Vote CT, a nonpartisan public education campaign to raise awareness and support for the arts among voters and candidates. Election Day is November 6.

CREATE THE VOTE

CALLING ALL YOUNG AND ASPIRING FILMMAKERS...

For three weeks next July, students will have the chance to work with Echo Park Film Center in Los Angeles to create a 16mm film that tracks a day in the life of New Haven, from sunup to sundown, drifting late into the night. Each student will have the chance to record and tell the story of one hour of the day. In the end, they will bring their perspectives together to produce an homage to New Haven known as a City Symphony, a 24-minute black and white film set to music.

Students will learn how to shoot, process and edit 16mm film (that's right, the real stuff traditionally used for motion pictures!), and collaborate on the music that will accompany their story.

Applications will be available in Spring 2019; visit artspacenewhaven.org/sap.

In 2018-19, Artspace also received generous exhibition, project, and operating support from the following foundations and government agencies: Chipstone Foundation, Community Foundation of Greater New Haven, Connecticut Office of the Arts/DECD, CT Humanities Fund, David Langrock Fund, Global Institute for Arts & Leadership's Vital New Voices program, Public Welfare Foundation, Tremaine Foundation, National Endowment for the Arts/Our Town, Windgate Foundation.

We owe our deep gratitude to all the participating artists putting out the welcome mat. Without their time, goodwill and artistic ideas, there would be no City-Wide Open Studios and no Artspace.

Studio listings were correct at time of printing but may be subject to alterations. Please visit cwsos.org for the latest updates.

In a city rich with arts organizations, Artspace plays a unique role in serving both artists and the community with its creative, innovative programming and nimble responsiveness to current issues and trends. Having served on Artspace's board for six years, I saw its good work first hand. I decided a wonderful legacy would be to help ensure its impact for years to come.

Join Cathy and other dedicated supporters in ensuring that there will be an Artspace for the artists of tomorrow. Our 30th Anniversary campaign invites you to name Artspace as a beneficiary of your will, insurance policy, or IRA and welcomes gifts of appreciated securities or other assets. Naming Artspace in your will costs you nothing in your lifetime.

For more information, contact Helen Kauder, Executive Director, at 203.772.2709 or helen@artspacenah.org.

Artspace is a participant in LEAVE A LEGACY Connecticut.
